

JEWISH YEMENITE FESTIVAL

Join us for the first ever
Boulder celebration of Yemenite
Jewish history and culture!

Sunday, November 9, 2008
3:30-7:30 p.m.
Congregation Har HaShem's South Building
3950 Baseline Road, Boulder, CO 80303

Featuring:

- Performance of Yemenite Jewish music and dance featuring the famous and in-demand Los Lantzmun
- Short videos and discussions about Yemenite Jewish history, religious practices and culture
- Mini-sessions in dance, music and storytelling
- Yemenite Jewish songs and dances
- Hands-on art projects for children and adults
  - Henna painting, Embroidery, Jewelry-making
- Exhibition of Yemenite Jewish artifacts and crafts
- Sampling of authentic Yemenite food

Congregation
Har HaShem הר השם

Brought to you by
Congregation Har HaShem,
Allied Jewish Federation of Colorado, Boulder JCC,
Kehilat Aish Kodesh,
CU Judaic Studies
Department & 8 Days A Week
Imaging and Copy Center

More Information: Molly Goldsmith
m.goldsmith@harhashem.org
303-499-7077, ext 18

RSVP's are a MUST.
Deadline: Tuesday, November 4

$15/adult, $10/senior,
$5/child 12 & under and college students

There will be an additional $2 charge per ticket for non-RSVP tickets sold at the door.

*"Blessings in Disguise:
True Stories that Demonstrate the Silver
Lining Behind the Clouds Principle."*

With highly acclaimed author Yitta Halberstam

"Life is suffering," - one of the four Noble truths in Buddha's teachings - in a sense asks us to endure, even embrace trials and tribulations, seeing them as integral to and inevitable in our lives. We are not asked to dig deeper, but rather to accept negative occurrences for what they are and for what they teach us. Judaism, however, often looks at "bad things" as illusory experiences, for wrapped up inside are kernels of good, veins of gold. In collecting true stories for her "Small Miracles" series, Yitta Halberstam often found the principle of "Gam Zu Letova" (Everything is for the Good) woven into the fabric of the narratives she heard. For a shot-in-the arm infusion of optimism and faith, come hear the stories Yitta heard herself that testify:

"That which seems bad at first, often turns out to be all for the best in the end!"

Monday, December 1
7:30 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.
Congregation Har HaShem
$10 in advance, $15 at the door

Kosher refreshments will be served.

For questions and to RSVP, call or email Molly at 303-499-7077, ext 18, or m.goldsmith@harhashem.org.

It's Christmas, Nu?

Join us to hang out, watch movies and eat Chinese food!

Join your friends at Har HaShem for adult and kid-friendly flicks, games and crafts, Chinese food, popcorn and candy, and great company. Come for awhile, or stay the whole day!

Thursday, December 25
1:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Har HaShem South Building

$18/family of 4 or more

$5 per person

Nominal additional fees
for popcorn and candy

We really need RSVP's so we have an idea of how much food to order!
RSVP to Molly at 303-499-7077, ext 18, or m.goldsmith@harhashem.org